"For many Kiwi trampers, central-east European hiking is off the radar. Throw in some gorgeous old towns, stunning autumnal colours, a bit of stark, sobering WWII history, some hearty food and drink, and we have the makings of a rather special trip. Our tour covers the highlights of SE Poland and some of N Slovakia in a mixture of history, tramping, culture, architecture, local cuisine, markets, some rare wildlife and much more. We travel from high summits to forest-wrapped lakes and gorges, to picture-perfect cobblestoned town squares & castles, and marvel at hundreds of years of dense, layered history.

Poland, or Polska, comes from 'Pole', meaning '[people] of the field'. The land has always been the bulwark of Europe, with a history of oppression, destruction and suffering. Modern Poland embraces its history but throws off its shackles, and deals to some long-held stereotypes in the most charming of ways. She is an unexpected gem to discover – by any measure, the most surprising and under-rated country on the continent! The Slovak mountain country is likewise easily the best in central Europe.

We will also be in Warsaw during the 100th anniversary of the founding of the modern Polish state [The Polish 2nd Republic], on 11th November. This was the date when Marshal Jozef Pilsudski was released from the Kaiser's prison in 1918 and assumed the role as Poland's first Chief of State, and is celebrated as Poland's national day. Warsaw will turn on her very best for us when we are there. We will additionally be able to view Pilsudski's sarcophagus in Krakow.

The Tatra watershed is the highlight of central Europe, and is accessible and exceptionally rewarding. The scenery is gorgeous. The history of the surrounding region is sobering. The tramping is easy and satisfying”.

*Joe & Vicky Nawalaniec
Carterton
2017*

Trip Leaders

Joe has been a school teacher for thirty years (presently teaching outdoor ed) and has been poking around in odd corners of NZ's bush and mountains since his early teens. He and his wife Vicky have enjoyed a lifetime of fun adventures, which have included memorable tramping and mountain bagging trips through Europe, America and Asia, and, of course, NZ.

He leads the travel club trip to Ladakh in 2017 and also for 2018 – a region he has explored extensively.

“Joe and Vicky have travelled widely in Central Europe. The first foray was during the Cold War to places that no longer exist like East Germany, Yugoslavia, the Soviet Union and Czechoslovakia. Their most recent travels were to Poland and Slovakia during 2016. Joe travelled back there for a second trip in late 2016 to bury his father's ashes in his grandparent's home town under the Tatra mountains. The region is otherworldly, and Joe and Vicky just keep wanting to return there. The Tatra watershed is enigmatic, captivating and quaint, but there is the underlying sense that Poland and Slovakia are changing and globalising. At the moment there is a dreamy timelessness about the peaks, forests, castles and market squares which may or may not have the same feel in a few years time”.

Vicky knows Poland and Slovakia as well as Joe, and her second pair of hands will be invaluable in organising things, moving cars, etc. The other advantage is that the group has two competent trekking and touring guides available. This is an essential highlights trip, personally created by Joe and Vicky and I'm delighted that they are available to lead this for the travel club. I'm sure you will have a brilliant time.

You are welcome to contact them with questions, or if you need more information : aspiring3033@hotmail.com

Itinerary

Day 1. Tue 23rd Oct : Arrive Krakow

Krakow is a southern Polish city near the Slovak border and the second largest city after the capital, Warsaw. It has a well preserved medieval core with UNESCO World Heritage status and a fascinating Jewish quarter. The name Krakow comes from the name of a pre-Polish king, Krak, from the 9th or 10th century, who according to legend founded the town.

“Meet your trip leaders who will take you for a ‘welcome to Poland’ dinner and drinks”. D.

Day 2. Wed 24th Oct : Krakow – Nowy Sacz – Becowka Jamna

After breakfast, we drive out of Krakow, but will return later in the itinerary for a good look. The drive takes us through the old Jewish town of Kazimierz, past Oskar Schindler’s factory, through the old Jewish Ghetto, skirt past the remains of Plaszow Concentration Camp onto a modern autobahn heading east. We then turn south at the old town of Bochnia, and wind into the forested hills of the northern Tatras, past Limanowa and Nordarka (many Nawalaniec family in these places). We arrive at the town of Nowy Sacz (pr. Novy Sonch), on the Dunajec (pr.Dunaeyitz) river and have the afternoon to explore the quaint old town centre.

Lunch/dinner on Nowy Sacz town square, or optionally in Becowka Jamna, an authentic rustic alpine chalet 32kms away. B.

Day 3. Thu 25th Oct : Nowy Sacz – Szczawnica – Dunajec River Gorge – Kluszkowce

Buy some lunch supplies for the day’s activities. A short drive via Podegrodzie (another Nawalaniec stronghold) to Szczawnica, where we hire bikes (those who wish can walk instead). We head out on our 25km return cycle through the famed Dunajec Gorge. A few minutes after leaving the national park pavilion in Poland, we cross the border into Slovakia, and cycle the 12km of track to the upstream roadend. After crossing the cycle bridge a couple of kilometers further upstream and exploring the town, we can return the same way, or optionally travel with our bikes via raft back down through the gorge to our vehicles. If we have time in the afternoon, we can cycle through the Homole Ravine, and up to the Biala Woda Reserve, with its pretty waterfalls and rock outcrops.

Late in the day, a short 20 min drive to the little town of Kluszkowce. A winter and summer resort town close to the Slovak border, and our hotel which has a hot tub and sauna. B.

Day 4. Fri 26th Oct : Kluszkowce – Strbske Pleso – Popradske Pleso

After breakfast, we check out the ruins of nearby Czorsztyn Castle and a photo stop to see the still functioning Neidzica Castle – the prettiest in Poland. Then a morning bushwalk up to Trzy Korony (Three Crowns) and Zamek Pieninski (Pieninsky Tower) summit in the national park for awesome views over the Dunajec Gorge.

After lunch, we'll stock up on other Polish goodies like salamis, cheeses and superb beer, all at bargain prices, before crossing the border into Slovakia. Then an interesting drive through the eastern extent of the Tatras past the ski resort town of Strbske Pleso. Depending on parking availability in a restricted area of the national park, we may or may not be able to park at the accommodation. If we cannot, then we have a 4km / one hour walk with our packs up to Popradske Pleso alpine lake at 1500m to the Horský Hotel. The late afternoon is yours to explore around the lake, or enjoy the hot tub, sauna or bar. We spend four nights here, an ideal base for the next three days of hiking.

A substantial breakfast, packed lunches and dinners are included at the hotel. B. D.

Day 5. Sat 27th Oct : Ostrava Pass and beyond hike

With lunch in our daypacks, head around the lake to the long 470m zig-zag up to the Ostrva (Osterwa) Pass at 1966m. We walk along a good sidle track with spectacular views south over Slovakia. Depending on weather and how we feel, there are a number of potential goals here : Lucne Sedlo Pass (2168m), Tupa summit (2285m), or even a look at Koncista peak (2538m).

We return late in the afternoon, perhaps having glimpsed a chamois, wolf or even a bear. Time to enjoy the hot-tub and bar maybe! B. L.D.

Day 6. Sun 28th Oct : Kasprowy Peak hike

Today we head in the opposite direction climbing NW up a valley to the large Velke Hincovo Pleso alpine lake, where we veer left and hike up to the Vysne Koprove Sedlo pass (2180m). From here, it is an easy 30 minute amble up to the summit of Kasprowsky Peak (2363m) for 360 degree views. We can then descend to the north of the lake, and pick up the far trail back down the valley to our alpine hotel. B. L.D.

Day 7. Mon 29th Oct : Mt. Rysy tramp

The previous two days hiking has prepared us to attempt the goal of this section of our trip – the summit of Rysy (2499m), Poland's highest peak. The name describes the big scratches on its steep Polish face. Our well-trod popular trail takes us up past Chata pod Rysmi (the hut under Rysy), which at 2250m, is the highest refuge/hut in Central Europe. There is a very memorable and photogenic toilet here, and, if the hut is still open this late in the season, cheap meals, hot drinks and a bar! But first, onwards and upwards – to the Waga (Weight), a col at 2340m, with its giddy view down into the Tazka Dolina and over to the impressive spires of Cesky Stit (Czech Peak) 2500m, and Vysoka (Tall One), 2547m. Some zig-zag scrambling, a wee sidle, and then we are on the Slovak summit of this double-peak (2503m). A couple more minutes, a small saddle, and then we are on the "Roof of Poland", Mt Rysy. Note the Polish alpine scenery beneath your feet – we'll be hiking through there in a few days! The descent back to the hut, and then the hotel is easy and exhilarating. B. L.D.

NOTE : we'll find out whether the hut is open or not prior and if we need to take a lunch or not, before we depart. Depending on weather forecasts, we may vary the order of these days. Rysy really deserves the best weather day. If there is anyone not feeling up to this, Vicky will offer a lower level valley and botanical walk.

Day 8. Tue 30th Oct : Popradske Pleso – Tatranska Javorina – Zakopane

After an early breakfast, we drive for 50km to Tatranska Javorina, back near the Polish border. We make a morning tea stop then then head up the beautiful Javorinka valley for our last walk in the Slovak Tatras – a 2 to 3 hour hike up onto Kopske Sedlo pass (1750m), a height gain of about 750m. Enjoy late lunch with a view of the Belianske Tatras, the only part of the range comprised of limestone, before returning to Tatranska Javorina. We may position a vehicle at each end of the trail and do a through walk, swapping vehicle keys in the middle.

We then drive across the border and onto Zakopane, a pretty resort town at the base of the Tatras which is known for its turn of the 20th century wooden chalets. We stay in a hotel in the centre of town for the next three nights. B.

Note that for a poor weather opinion, we will hike near Mt Osobita, a wilderness preserve for eagles. We then continue across Poland and onto Zakopane. The beauty of this slightly longer option is that it enables us to do a complete 'circle' of the Tatras, both High and Western, seeing the range in its entirety, and from a different series of vantage points.

Day 9. Wed 31st Oct : Zakopane hiking

We have a smorgasbord of outdoor choices!

A lighter round trip hike up Nosal mountain (1206m)

A cablecar trip up to the summit of Kasprowy Wierch (1987m) and then hike back down

A skyline walk along a section of the great peaks, or exploring the network of forest, valley and ridge trails.

There are also caves to see and bicycles to hire.

Today is yours to do what you want, which could be to take a day off and enjoy the alpine ambience of the town.

*Vicky will lead an easier option while Joe will inevitably be scrambling up some peak chasing the enthusiasts! B.

Day 10. Thu 1st Nov : Zakopane – Morskie Oko – Czarny Staw pod Rysami – Zakopane

*An early start and with a packed lunch as we drive 22km to Lysa Polana for our hike up to Morskie Oko (Eye Sea), and then Czarny Staw pod Rysami (Black Lake under Rysy) alpine lakes, right under the raw sheer northern wall of our old friend, Mt Rysy. We should see the scratches. Czarny Staw is the deepest lake in the Polish Tatras at 80m. Those who wish could even continue on the well marked network of beautiful trails through a chain of alpine tarns and passes, allowing a mellow 4 – 5 hours hiking via the Kuznice trailhead, back to Zakopane. B.

Note that we may flip the order of these two days, as Morskie Oko deserves the better weather.

Note also that Joe will accompany those who wish to 'tramp through' the tarns and high passes on a long day back to Zakopane, while Vicky will return with the others to the vehicles, and back to the village.

Note also that today is Polish 'All Saints Day' (or Day of the Dead), where Poles remember their ancestors and those who have passed. We can get a bouquet of flowers to lay at the war memorial there.

Day 11. Fri 2nd Nov : Zakopane – Auschwitz / Birkenau camps visit – Krakow

Having completed the trekking and cycling in the Tatras, we now dive into the historical and cultural part of the trip.

We depart early and via Sucha Beskidzka to the infamous town of Oswiecim. After lunch, those who have purchased tickets for a guided tour will be shown around Auschwitz 1 camp. This is a very emotional, moving experience and highly recommended. After this we take a free shuttle bus to Auschwitz 2 Birkenau camp. There is no charge for this, no requirement to be guided and is very extensive, so you can wander at will. Again this is a must see and is exceptionally sobering.

*In the later afternoon, when everyone has experienced enough, we then drive back to Krakow where we are based for the next four nights. B.

Day 12. Sat 3rd Nov : Krakow – Oskar Schindler's Factory – Old Jewish Ghetto – Plaszow Forced Labour camp site visit – Kazimierz Jewish Town

*First up today is a tram ride to visit Oskar Schindler's factory, and then we walk from there to look around the old Jewish Ghetto. For lunch we will try a classic socialist-styled cafeteria serving large helpings of traditional Polish dishes. After this we head through a beautiful park to the "Krakus Mound" – the 9th century tumulus of King Krakus, the legendary founder of Krakow. We explore around the overgrown remains of the Plaszow (pr. Pwaeshov) Forced Labour camp. We then return the way we came, crossing the Vistula River, and wander around the fascinating old Jewish Quarter of Kazimierz, named after Casimir 111 the Great, 1310 – 1370, one of the great modernisers of Poland. It was here that the 'Schindler's List' movie was filmed and Joe can point out some of the scene locations. Tonight you might like to try some pierogi or tasty golabki for dinner at an authentic Polish restaurant. B.

Day 13. Sun 4th Nov : Krakow – The Old Town – Wawel Castle

*Krakow is one of the real treasures of Europe. It is medieval, but also has a pre-war feel coupled with a funky retro 50's socialist vibe! Today we enjoy some of the sights on a walking tour. We head to the Old Town (Stare Miasto) via the Grunwaldski Teutonic wars monument, and then disappear back in time. Rynek Glowny, Wawel Castle, the Cathedral, Jagellonian University, Smocza Jama (Dragon Cave), Church of St. Wojciech and more besides, with lunch maybe at the oldest inn in Europe – Restauracja Wierzynek (from 1364) B.

Day 14. Mon 5th Nov : Krakow – Wielicki Salt Mines

*This is officially a day off, so you can treat it as such, maybe explore more of Krakow, or optionally join Joe to see the Wielicki Salt Mines on the outskirts of Krakow. B.

Day 15. Tue 6th Nov : Krakow – Przemyśl – Krasieczyn

*Sadly we leave Krakow and travel 250 kms to Przemyśl, the second-oldest southern city, after Krakow, with its stunning old market square and ancient palaces. Our very special overnight stop is 9 kms away in the little village of Krasieczyn, very close to the Ukrainian border. Hotel Zamek w Krasieczynie (Tower of Krasieczyn) is in fact a magnificent Polish renaissance castle dating from 1580 and essentially unchanged since the 17th century. There are beautiful turrets, towers, a chapel, courtyard etc. The hotel is located in a side wing of the castle. In the afternoon we explore the village then head back to our castle for dinner. B.

Day 16. Wed 7th Nov : Krasieczyn – Belzec Camp site visit – Zamosc

Allow for plenty of time to wander the castle and grounds, before we travel via Przemyśl, an easy 2 hour journey that runs close to the Ukrainian border to Belzec camp museum and memorial site. After our visit we'll stop at the next major town Tomaszów Lubelski for lunch, enroute to Zamość, 45 mins away. We stay in the centre of this stunningly beautiful old town, next to the town hall. This World Heritage listed town centre can easily be explored on foot this afternoon. B.

Day 17. Thu 8th Nov : Zamość – KL Lublin / Majdanek Camp visit – Lublin

Around 1 hr 10 mins drive to Lublin, where on the outskirts we will visit the remarkably well preserved Konzentrationslager Lublin – crematoria, gas chambers, guard towers. The Nazis were caught 'on the hop' here, and left most things intact when they fled. What was pulled down, the Poles simply rebuilt. It is a thoughtful, reflective place and we will most likely be the only travellers here. You can explore the lovely old city of Lublin in the afternoon. B.

Day 18. Fri 9th Nov : Lublin – Chełm – Sobibor Camp site visit – Lublin

An optional day, and will go ahead depending on group demand. We will drive 1.5 hours via brief stop at pretty Chełm, then on to the Sobibor camp site and memorial, wedged right up on the Poland – Belarus – Ukraine tri-border. Like Belzec, there is a memorial in the forest, with the old railway station and a museum. We can drive right next to the Ukrainian border, through Sobibor settlement, then alongside the Belarus border about 50 meters away. Stopping for lunch at the border town of Włodawka before we return to Lublin. B.

Day 19. Sat 10th Nov : Lublin Old Town – Warsaw

Enjoy a good wander around Lublin Old Town before a 170km drive to Warsaw, the nation's capital. B.

Day 20. Sun 11th Nov : Warsaw Old Town – 'Polish National Day'

Palace of Culture and Science – Jewish Ghetto – Pawiak Gestapo Prison visit. We will take a tram into Warsaw central and walk this lovely and liveable city. Warsaw is a fascinating mix of very old and ultra-modern. The post-war faithfully rebuilt old town centre and castle actually contrasts nicely with one of Europe's most striking modern skylines. The tallest building remains the Stalinist gothic 'Palace of Culture and Science' and we'll hopefully take lifts up to the observatory floor. We see scraps of Jewish Ghetto, and visit the infamous Pawiak Gestapo prison. The Holocaust Museum may also be visited. There are lovely palaces and parks to wander as well.

The focus of the day, however, is that it is the 100th anniversary of the restoration of Poland's sovereignty, after 123 years in abeyance. National Independence Day "Nrodowe Święto Niepodległości" celebrates the founding of the Polish Second Republic, under Marshal Józef Piłsudski. Despite the crowds today, lunch must be had at Vicky and Joe's favourite cafeteria for heart warming genuine Polish tucker.

A tram back to our hotel in the late afternoon, then we spill out amongst the crowds again for dinner. B.

Day 21. Mon 12th Nov : Warsaw – Treblinka camp visit – Warsaw

We drive NE for 1.5 hours via Wyszki, then across the River Bug, to the Treblinka extermination Camp 11 and Treblinka forced labour Camp 1 remains and memorial. This is the most northerly part of our journey so wrap up warm. It is a ghostly and eerie place here in the taiga forest, and we will again likely be the only people present. This is the final death camp of this trip ; you're free to wander the ruins, memorials, railway siding, and the gravel extraction quarry. Treblinka is a byword for depravity and evil, so time to reflect on man's inhumanity to man. Following a different route back to Warsaw we drive through quaint villages and hamlets and return the rental vehicles now. B.

Day 22. Tue 13th Nov : Warsaw

Our final day is a free one, and we strongly recommend getting an all-day public transport pass (metro, buses, trams and local trains). This is definitely the way to go. Warsaw's twin eastern city, Praga (on the other bank of the Vistula River) can also be explored easily on this ticket. We reconvene in the Old City in the later afternoon for our final goodbye dinner and drinks together. B.D.

Day 23. Wed 14th Nov : Departure

The trip officially ends after breakfast. B.
